

FIELD ENGINEER

Job Description

Quecon, Inc. is currently seeking Field Technicians / Engineers to support the Federal Aviation Administration.

Qualified candidates will perform a variety of duties to support the FAA customer in achieving both their short- and long-term goals.

Job Responsibilities

- Perform site surveys and develop installation plans in support of the Program Management Office
- Perform installation and removal of telecommunications equipment at sites across the US.
- Perform light site prep construction and electrical installation at sites to support infrastructure upgrades.
- Perform trenching by hand and using light equipment (mini-excavator, skid steer, trencher, drill, compactor, etc.).
- Provide technical assistance in performing voice-grade, data-comm, digital and IP telecommunications services cutovers.
- Assist in updating operational telecommunications service records and files.
- Climb towers to perform work including installing, aligning or removing microwave antennas and waveguide

Job Requirements

- Experience leading critical Telecommunications Networks transition, cost and schedule efficiencies
- Experience in telecommunications, networking and communications.
- General knowledge in electrical and construction
- Must be able to pass background check and obtain a security clearance.
- Ability to lift 75+ lbs.
- Must have a valid Driver's License.
- Must be able to demonstrate proficiency in MS Office 365 suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook, Project, etc.)
- FAA or similar experience Preferred

Education

- Bachelor's degree and a minimum of 7 years of experience

Travel

- 50% - 75%